MEDAL COMMEMORATING THE VISIT OF
MARSHAL FOCH TO THE UNITED STATES
MCMXXI

DESIGNED BY ROBERT AITKEN, N. A.

MCMXXI

From time to time The American Numismatic Society has struck medals to commemorate the visits paid to our shores by those who have played a prominent part in the history written during the past seven years. The Committee on the Publication of Medals takes pleasure in announcing a medal to commemorate the visit of Marshal Foch. His extraordinary courage and the tremendous organizing ability which we associate with his name, are qualities which excite the keenest admiration of all Americans, and the gold medal which has been presented to him will give this fitting expression.

The obverse of the medal displays a portrait of Marshal Foch. Save for this, there is only the inscription COMMEMORATING THE VISIT OF MARSHAL FOCH TO THE UNITED STATES, the date and the seal of The American Numismatic Society.

The reverse is happily filled by the figure of a welcoming Victory. On her arm she wears a shield bearing the Service Star of the American Forces, a recognition of the part played by the organization to whose invitation the presence of our guest is directly due. The Coat-of-Arms of France and America occupy the field providing a background for the figure.

This medal was designed by Mr. Robert Aitken, N. A., President of the National Sculpture Society. Mr. Aitken's work has covered many of the other branches of sculpture as well as that of the medal. Recently, the design of the half-dollar to commemorate the centennial of the admission of the State of Missouri was completed by him. Previously he had made designs for the Watrous Medal for Sculpture awarded by the National Academy of Design, and for the Panama-Pacific Fifty-dollar Slug.

The first copy in gold is to be presented to Marshal Foch. After this has been struck, copies in silver and bronze will be offered to our members, and to the members of the Institut Français aux Etats-Unis, and the Alliance Française.

The silver medals will be sold for Ten Dollars each and the bronze at Five Dollars. Orders for the number desired should be sent on the accompanying cards together with cheque, made payable to The American Numismatic Society. No orders will be received after December 15th except those from abroad under a date prior to December 15th.

W. GEDNEY BEATTY,
ROBERT JAMES EIDLITZ,
SYDNEY P. NOE,

Committee on the Publication of Medals.
